Universality results for the largest eigenvalue of deformed Wigner matrices

Sandrine Péché

Universite Joseph Fourier, Grenoble, France - Visiting UC Davis

Date : October 20, 2006 (Friday)   Time : 1-2 PM

Abstract

We consider finite rank perturbations of large Wigner matrices. For some specific deformations we can then prove that the largest eigenvalue exhibits, for a wide class of ensembles, a phase transition. The limiting distribution of the largest eigenvalues is studied for both real and complex ensembles and is proved to be universal, under various assumptions.